

Project Report

Project: : A Hardware shop's sales database

OVERVIEW:

This software keeps data of all sales in a file. It stores all the information of the hardware which are sold. User has to give user name and password for accessing this software. After that they can use the software. There is a menu with a lots of hardware name and a few feature like viewing sales report, searching item by a unique code, deleting all record.

Working process:

- When user opens the program user has to input username and password for accessing further.
- The initial username and password is admin. After inputting password user can access main menu.
- The main menu has 6 hardware and few features like searching record, showing all record, deleting record.
- Every hardware menu has many options like customer name, brand name, hardware name, unique code, date.
- The hardware input will be stored in the file.
- User can show all the sale report by pressing show all menu.
- User can delete all record by using delete record menu.

Benefit of the software :

- This software is very helpful for a hardware shop for keeping sales report of the Hardwares.
- This software saves time and effort.
- User can easily see all the record of the software that are sold.
- In case of any problem user can check if the hardware was sold from their shop or not by the help of unique code.
- This software is secured user has to input user name and password for accessing the main menu.